40 artists participate in Ramallah Art Fair next week with 200 artworks

The Art Fair kicks off on Monday 12 Dec and continues until 12 Feb at Zawyeh Gallery in Ramallah and virtually.

Ramallah- 5 December 2022: Following the tremendous success of the first two editions, Ramallah Art Fair this year will kick off on Monday 12 December 2022. The third edition of the Art Fair will be launched at Zawyeh Gallery in Ramallah and online via its virtual space that was designed to provide visitors with a unique experience aiming to cross geographical boundaries and allow the public in Palestine and abroad to view the artworks alike.

In this third edition, 40 Palestinian, Arab, and international artists will participate with more than 200 artworks that combine different artistic styles and practices, many are produced specially for Ramallah Art Fair.

As in previous editions, Ramallah Art Fair aims to support young artists by urging them to produce and display their artworks to the public on one hand and encouraging new collectors to purchase original paintings at reasonable prices on the other.

Ziad Anani, Director of Zawyeh Gallery emphasizes the importance of displaying Palestinian art. Yet, he adds: “we opened our doors in this edition to the participation of a group of Arab and international artists as well. Artists from Iraq, Lebanon, Syria, Norway, Spain, and Germany will exhibit for the first time in Palestine as part of our effort to create bridges between Palestine and the world.”

This edition of the Ramallah Art Fair will include more diverse works utilizing multiple techniques and practices and focusing on different forms, including paintings, photography, and sculptures. The themes of the artworks focus mainly on Palestine.
